PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

One hundred years ago a handful of men came to this campus—Wake Forest's first freshman class. They had only confidence in themselves and faith in the future of the College.

One hundred years have passed and you, the first freshman class of Wake Forest's second century, are on the campus. You have one hundred years of history to uphold your choice and you need only to catch the spirit of the place, fall into step, and forward march.

I welcome you,—every one of you—and want to do everything I can to help make your life at Wake Forest a well-rounded and therefore a happy and successful one.

Thurman Kitchin

President of Wake Forest College

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE STUDENT HANDBOOK

HERE'S TO WAKE FOREST

Oh, here's to Wake Forest, a glass of the finest,
Red, ruddy Rhenish filled up to the brim!
Her sons they are many, unrivaled by any;
With hearts o'erflowing we will sing her hymn.

Chorus:

Rah, Rah, Wake Forest, Rah!
Old Alma Mater's sons we are;
We'll herald her story and die for her glory.
Old Gold and Black is ever waving high.

As Frosh we adore her, as Sophs we explore her,
And carve our names upon her ancient walls;
As Juniors patrol her, as Seniors extol her,
And weep to leave fore'er her sacred halls.

(Chorus)

Though fortune forsake us and fate o'ertake us,
We'll ne'er forget our dear old college days,
And o'er memory's treasure we'll drink without measure,
And sing fore'er our Alma Mater's praise.

(Chorus)

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE STUDENT HANDBOOK

DEAR OLD WAKE FOREST

Dear old Wake Forest!
Thine is a noble name;
Thine is a glorious fame,
 Constant and true.
We give thee of our praise,
Adore thine ancient days,
Sing thee our humble lays,
 Mother so dear.

Dear old Wake Forest!
Mystic thy name to cheer;
Be thou our guardian near,
 Fore'er and aye.
We bow before thy shrine,
Thy brow with bays entwined,
All honor now be thine,
 Mother today.

—G. W. Paschal

THE HONOR SYSTEM

Out of the traditions of the past generations has developed the Honor System of student government at Wake Forest. Somewhere in the life of the College when student government was unknown there was planted the seed which were to germinate into the system we now have in operation. Through the assumption of responsibilities by students there grew up the idea of "to be expected" conduct of students, and every student was as zealous that his conduct should be that which was becoming to a Wake Forest man as was the faculty. In this way student government developed, and the Honor System alongside, when student government was unknown in theory.

The Honor System simply means that every man is upon his honor to conduct himself in a manner to be expected of a man and to report violations on the part of others. It has grown up in the life of our College on the assumption that men are more good than bad and, given an equal opportunity, will select the right in preference to the wrong, that self-government is necessary in an institution training for citizenship in a democratic state, and individual responsibility adds interest and effort on the part of the individual. All students are on their honor to refrain from such acts as cheating, hazing, stealing, and gambling; in other words, they are on their honor to do the right at all times and to abstain from the wrong.

The Student Council is the organ of the student body and serves as judge in cases where there are those who violate the Honor System. It also attempts to act in any other capacity in which it may be of service to the student body or to any member thereof.

The whole effort of those interested in student government at Wake Forest is for the purpose of making this a better place to spend four years. Let us cooperate in the movement for better student government, better student life, and a more ideal place in which to work.

Amendments

AMENDMENT I

In view of the fact that the passing of worthless checks by Students of Wake Forest College has caused considerable trouble and has brought ill-repute upon the College, be it hereby Resolved:

1. That it shall be unlawful for a student knowingly and willingly to pass a worthless check. The punishment for this offense shall be at the discretion of the Student Council.

2. That failure to redeem a worthless check even though it was unwillingly and unknowingly passed, shall subject him to the same punishment.

Adopted by the Student Body April 4, 1923.

AMENDMENT II

Realizing that the sale of Freshman caps during the year 1922-1923 was unsatisfactory, the committee offers the following amendment:

1. That the Legislature shall have the sole power to designate the person or persons who shall have charge of the ordering and selling of Freshman caps at Wake Forest College. The Legislature shall have power to demand a reasonable share of the profits, to be used for the purchasing of stationery and necessary record books.

2. It is further recommended that the Legislature shall have power to regulate the size of said caps.

Adopted by the Student Body April 4, 1923.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE STUDENT HANDBOOK.

AMENDMENT III

In view of the fact that the present Constitution of the Student Government of Wake Forest College has been misinterpreted by the officers of the Student Body regarding the duties of the Vice President and the Secretary-Treasurer, the following amendment to the Constitution is recommended:

Whereas the present duties of the Vice President and Secretary-Treasurer of the Student Body are nil, be it Resolved:

1. That the Vice-President and Secretary-Treasurer of the Student Body shall be the Vice President and Secretary of the Student Council, with the power to vote; that the duties of the President of the Student Body shall devolve upon the Vice President in case the office of President is vacated.

2. That there shall be fourteen members of the Council and that ten members of the Council shall constitute a quorum.

Adopted by the Student Body April 25, 1923.

AMENDMENT IV

1. The voting in all Student Body elections shall be done by means of the Australian Ballot. The student Council shall furnish ballots on which shall be printed the names of candidates for all offices in alphabetical order, the voter filling in with an X the blank opposite the name he votes for. All ballots must be signed.

2. Members of the first year Medical Class shall be considered as Juniors, and eligible as voters and officers in the spring elections of the rising Senior Class. Candidates for the LL.B. degree during their second year in the Law School shall be considered as Juniors, and eligible as voters and officers in the spring elections of the rising Senior Class. No post-graduate shall be eligible as a voter or officer in any of the four undergraduate classes.

AMENDMENT V

1. Realizing that the present system under which Freshman caps are sold is totally unsatisfactory to the Student Government Bodies of Wake Forest College, and furthermore the efficiency and stability of Student Government is threatened because of the lack of sufficient funds to meet its necessary operating expenses, and furthermore that no appreciable progress in Student Government can be attained unless there are sufficient funds to meet the obligations that inevitably must be incurred in the amelioration of said Student Government:

The Student Legislature and the Student Council, in joint session April 19, 1928, passed the following amendment to the Constitution:

(1) That the Secretary of the Student Council shall have the sole power to order and sell Freshman caps, at a price to be designated by the Student Council. The President of the Student Council shall have the power to appoint a committee from the Council to assist the Secretary in distributing said caps at the opening of school if such is deemed necessary. Furthermore all profits derived from the sale of these caps shall be deposited in the treasury of the Student Council to meet any debts incurred in the operation of Student Government. Such debts to be contracted in the discretion of the Student Council.

(2) Also passed that the Student Council shall have the power to regulate the size of said caps.

Adopted by the Student Body April 20, 1928.

AMENDMENT VI

In regular meeting May 6, 1929, the Student Council makes the following proposed amendment to the Constitution: That all officers and members of the Student Government, including Student Body officers, members of the Student Council and Student Legislature, elected in the spring election, shall be inaugurated and actually installed into office not later than May 4. The duties of actual office-holding devolves upon the men inaugurated immediately following the inaugural ceremony, any provision of the Constitution to the contrary notwithstanding.

Adopted by the Student Body May 10, 1929.

THE STUDENT

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE STUDENT HANDBOOK

The publication offices are located on the third floor of the New Administration Building. If you are interested in writing or learning how to write, join these amateur schools of journalism. You are wanted—needed.

CHAPEL ATTENDANCE

Chapel services are held each week day except Wednesdays and Saturdays. All seniors, all law students, and all medical students are required to attend on Monday. All freshmen are required to attend on Tuesday and Thursday. All sophomores and juniors are required to attend on Friday. Any student who absents himself from chapel attendance five days in any semester is called before the Executive Committee for explanation. The student's parents are notified. If in any semester the student absents himself from chapel attendance on eight days without permits which excuse him from college duties generally, he will not be permitted to register in any subsequent semester unless the Executive Committee of the Faculty deems it wise to set aside the penalty.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

We have two literary societies at Wake Forest—Euzelian and Philomathesian. They meet twice weekly, Monday and Thursday nights at seven o'clock. They stand for individualism, democracy, and fellowship. The Euzelian Hall is located in the New

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE STUDENT HANDBOOK

Administration Building in the south wing of the third floor; the Philomathesians meet on the north wing of the same floor.

Every boy who attends Wake Forest College is invited to become a member of one of these societies. The work is carried on entirely by the students with the aid of Dr. Quisenberry. If you would learn to speak "on your feet" join one of the societies. You will find them a great help as well as pleasure.

LOCATION OF BUILDINGS

The physical equipment of the College embraces two hundred and thirty-four acres of land and twelve buildings. The campus consists of twenty-five acres.

The New Administration Building, constructed last spring, was dedicated in May. This is the building in which you registered. It is modern in every detail, and provides offices of administration, headquarters for publications and the Alumni Association, halls for the literary societies, along with classrooms and offices.

The Library Building, located next to the new Administration Building, is mainly the gift of Col. J. M. Heck and Mr. John G. Williams, of Raleigh. The first floor of this building is used for reading rooms; the second floor for classrooms and the Law Library. An extension was added to the building in 1926, which provides fire-proof stack rooms and classrooms and offices for the Departments of Law and Social Science.

The Library contains about 58,000 bound volumes, including about 11,000 volumes in the Law Library. In the reading rooms the leading national and State newspapers and current periodicals may be consulted.

The Chemistry Building is located next to the Library, provides for the Department of Chemistry lecture room and five laboratories.

The New Med Building is to the left of the northern entrance to the campus, next to the Chemistry Building.

The Gym is located near the Library and New Administration Building. It has the high steps and the four big columns.

Eastwick Dormitory is the very large building back of the Library, with the large porch and a thousand windows—on the northwest corner of the campus.

The Hospital is located on the southwest side of the campus—down in the hollow.

Hunter Dormitory—Where the book store is located, with the blaring radio—on the south side of the campus.

The Alumni Building is the middle structure on the south side of the campus.

The Church—at the southeast corner of the campus—at the right of the south entrance.

POINTERS

LAUNDRY

There are around three hundred negro women in Wake Forest who earn their living by laundering the students' clothes. Their work is fairly good, and, their prices are reasonable. You should have no trouble locating a laundry.

ENTERTAINMENT

The Castle Theatre here shows the best of pictures. There is no need for you to run over to Raleigh when you wish to see a good show. Mr Whitacre will appreciate your patronage.

"Tom's Place" and "Shorty's" are well equipped with pool tables, if you like this game. They will be glad to have you. "Tom's" is the hangout.

CLOTHES

The B. & S Department Store and the Men's Shoppe will be glad to fix you up with wearing apparel. The Shoppe is a tailoring establishment. The B & S store sells anything, from sox to hats.

DRINKS

Hardwicke's Pharmacy just across the railroad has three or four excellent soda-jerkers. Holding's Drug Store, next to the bank, is a typical one. It has anything you need. Tom's, Shorty's and that good little place next to the show, all can fix you up with light drinks. All have curb service.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE STUDENT HANDBOOK

PRESSING

Wake Forest Pressing Club in the big building on the other side of Hardwicke's does about all the cleaning and pressing for the boys. The proprietor will have student representatives to look after you.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES

The Book Store carries everything you need in the way of "Stickers", pens, ink, paper, notebooks, etc. Mr. Snyder is the manager of the store. You will like him.

GENERAL INFORMATION

STUDY

It is usually the man who does well scholastically his first year who gets the most pleasure from college afterwards. Be sure to place your studies first, then try to touch on other phases of college life. A good start is half the race; so come prepared to get down to work.

FRATERNITIES

Membership to fraternities is by invitation. It is not at all necessary to be a fraternity man. Many campus leaders do not belong to fraternities. If you do become interested in fraternities—go easy. When a man joins a fraternity he is choosing the friends with whom he will spend the most intimate hours of his college life, and possibly of his life after he leaves college. No other agency does so much to mold a college man's life.

ORGANIZATIONS

You will find the campus overrun with student organizations. These organizations vary in value to a student as much as they do in name. You will have to take your time and choose the organizations in which you will be able to do the most good for others and at the same time secure the most benefit for yourself. You will have four years in college so go slow. You don't want to get "too many irons in the fire at one time."

ELECTIONS

You will be expected to take an active part in all elections that concern the student body and organizations to which you belong. Vote according to the true merits of the man. Do not be prejudiced against a man because he belongs to another fraternity or organization. It is to the interest of every one concerned that the man best fitted for the place be elected. Upperclassmen will be glad to tell you what the candidates have done in the past, and how successfully they have filled previous offices.

HAZING

Hazing, in the true sense of the word, is a thing of the past at Wake Forest College. It is against the rules of Student Government, the laws of the State, and the wishes of the Student Body. There are, however, always a few upperclassmen who insist on hazing in a minor form at the opening of school. If you meet some of these be a good sport. Otherwise you may have a hard time.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE STUDENT HANDBOOK

CONCLUSION

When you enter Wake Forest you will be your own boss. There will be many here pulling for you but there will be no one trying to make you work. There are many honors for those who can earn them. It's going to be up to you.

School spirit is a term we apply to that enthusiasm and loyalty for the school and its work which impel a student to shape his conduct in such a manner that it will always reflect honor and credit on the school. A student that wants his school to be the best in the State will uphold it at all times by word and deed. He will not permit slanderous remarks concerning its character to pass unchallenged in his presence. He will do the right thing by his school, whether at home or visiting other schools as its representative in contests and conventions. He will take an active part in its life and make it a better place because he has once been a student in it.

Class spirit is a phase of school spirit, applied on a smaller scale to one's particular class. Class spirit does for a class what school spirit does for the institution as a whole. It is a valuable force in promoting class activities and deserves to be encouraged. It must never be overlooked, however, that school spirit is greater than class spirit, and that every organization in the school must work together for the common good. Malicious class spirit can do a great deal to defeat the purposes of the school as a whole.

In union there is strength, and this may be said of a school as well as of a nation.

OH ALMA MATER!

O Alma Mater! 'tis thy name
That lights our path to glory;
We'll ever spread thy matchless fame
In word and song and story.
So sound her name through all the land,
Let triumphs ring on every hand,
Let praises all our hearts command,
Hail, hail, to thee, Wake Forest!
Hail, hail to thee, Wake Forest!

And with true hearts we'll greet the hour
That calls us to our duty;
We'll trust our Alma Mater's power
To round our lives with beauty.

And all the while our hearts are free,
Our souls are full of jollity,
And singing in their joy and glee,
Hail, hail to thee, Wake Forest!

Her sturdy sons from far and near
Look back to Alma Mater;
With many a prayer, but n'er a fear,
They bless their Alma Mater;
And as they rise from height to height
And stand as victors in the fight,
They sing the mother of their might,
Hail, hail to thee, Wake Forest!
—G. W. Paschal

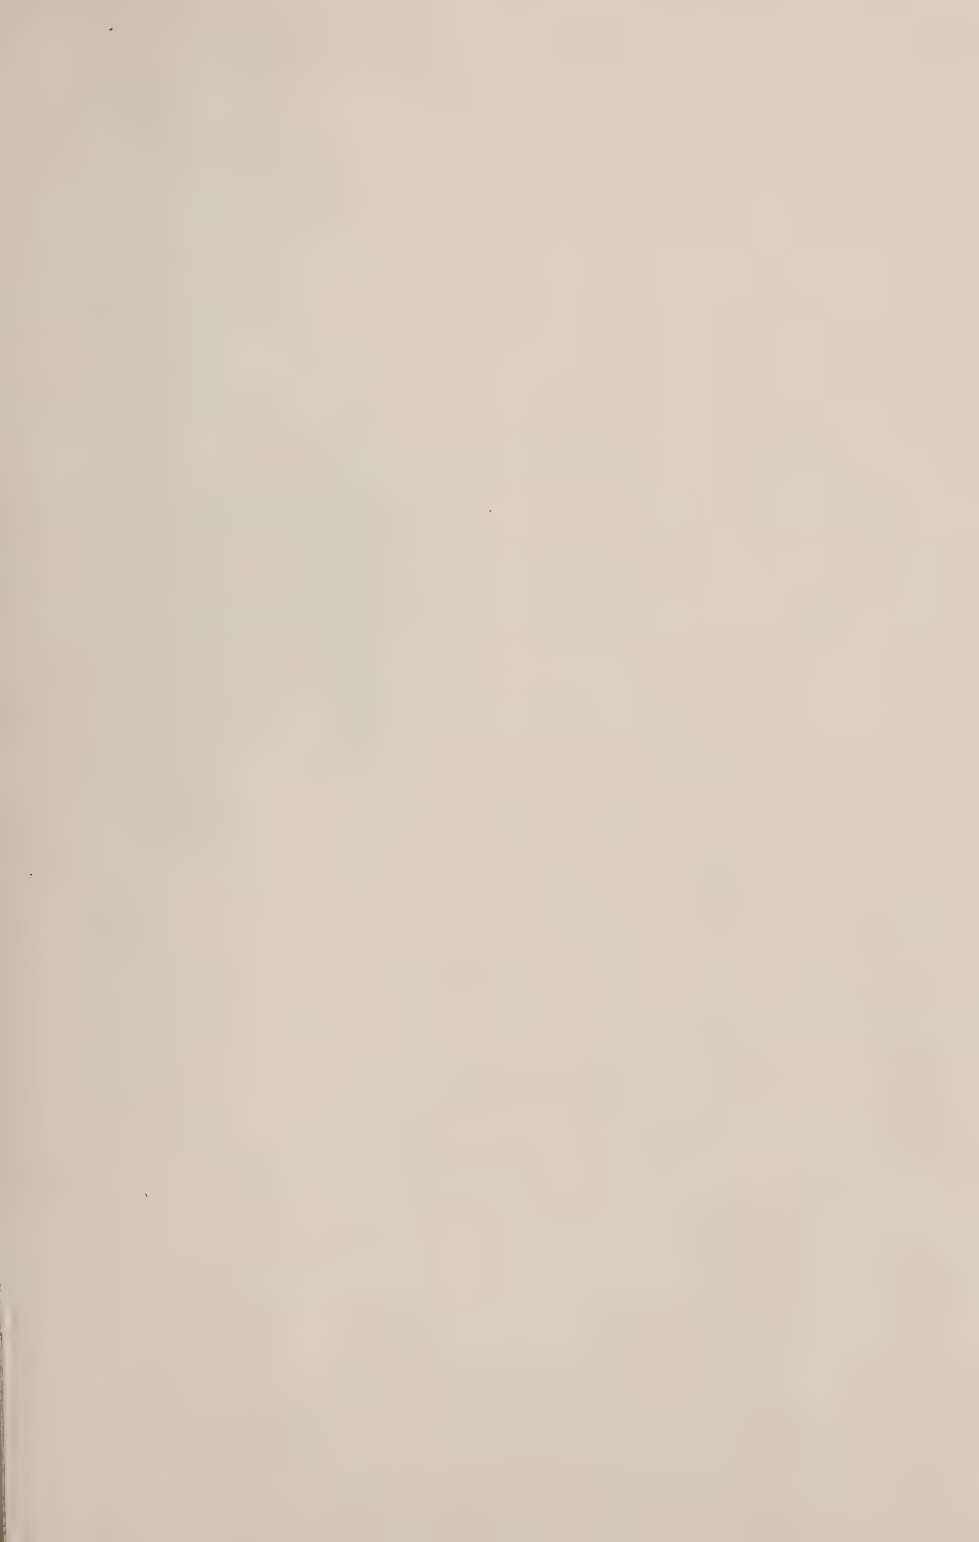

FINIS

Freshman, I hope you will find this little book of interest in aiding you to familiarize yourself with Wake Forest and its various phases of activity.

I like you because you have come to this great old school. If I can ever be of any assistance to you call on me. Please remember always to work and do the right thing—and the gods will be kind.

Thompson Greenwood.
